

A New Company, Clerical Business Solutions, is a Part of a Revolutionary New Labor Force

A revolutionary, creative new labor force is sweeping the nation & the world. This new labor force is known as The Virtual Assistant, who provides flexible, cost-effective services for business, executives, professionals & individuals. A new company, Clerical Business Solutions is a part of this creative new labor force.

Birmingham, AL, January 15, 2008 --(PR.com)-- In today's demanding world, many companies & professionals are seeking ways to cut business expenses; they are seeking new ways to streamline their business, make more profits and stay on top of business. To assist them, there is a new creative labor force that's sweeping the nation & the world. This new labor force is revolutionizing the way that professionals, small & large companies do business today. This new labor force is known as the Virtual Assistant. It is new to some but well known to others.

Clerical Business Solutions is a Virtual Assistant Company & is a part of this new labor force & has opened its "virtual doors" to the world. Services are offered worldwide with no geographic restrictions. It's owned & operated by the CEO & founder, Renee Cloud; who works in long term & short term collaborative partnerships with her clients by providing flexible, cost-effective services. Her services help clients to reevaluate their current administrative/office operations, reduce or eliminate their burden of administrative/ office operations, routine tasks, help them to run their office more efficiently, reduce stress or work hours & help them to maintain their business or projects better.

Many companies, solo-professionals & individuals are using this new labor force, the Virtual Assistant, to cut back on expenses, to streamline their business & as an extension to their office. Many companies are seeking cost-effective support for their business in their "own backyard" instead of venturing overseas for outsourcing services or business support services. You don't have to be responsible for another employee when working with a Virtual Assistant. By working with a Virtual Assistant, you don't gain an employee, you gain a partner in your business or projects & someone who wants you to succeed. Because your success is their success. A Virtual Assistant doesn't cost you overhead or additional business expenses like an employee would. There are lots of benefits of contracting with a Virtual Assistant.

"Outsourcing can cost 50% less than a full-time employee," according to the Hackett Group. According to the International Association of Administrative Professionals, "3,000 & more people are using the title & that number is expected to rise as more executives look for assistance above & beyond what the typical office offers."

Clerical Business Solutions' mission is to help others succeed in business & build long term collaborative relationships. "Your success is my success, let Clerical Business Solutions become your partner in your business success," states Renee Cloud, Email: info@clericalsolutionsinc.net , Website: www.clericalsolutionsinc.net .

Clerical Business Solutions primarily works with small business, executives & professionals but can accommodate individuals. Clerical Business Solutions provides free first time consultations and a variety of business support services in administrative/ office support, outsourcing/ overflow work services, secretarial services, business support services {business start-up, help finding employees, maintenance etc. }, personal or business schedule / appointment management, typing/ data entry services, resume services, email management, planning services: travel, business, personal etc... , spreadsheets, grant writing and more.
